- Poly Crisis or Organic Crisis? The Crisis of the United States and the US-led World Order
- Do Policies Targeting Poor Districts Work? An Evaluation of Backward Regions Grant Fund Programme
- Skewed Food Policies, Distorted Inter-crop Parity, and Nutri-cereal Farmers: An Empirical Analysis

CURRENT STATISTICS

Poly Crisis or Organic Crisis?

Looking at three ways in which to think about the nature of the world crisis and the crisis of American power, an outline of key aspects of the crisis and change in the world and in the United States is provided. page 38

Evaluating the BRGF Programme

The analysis of the impact of the Backward Regions Grant Fund on change in access to amenities for more than 5,000 subdistricts reveals that the programme failed to improve public goods access in backward areas. page 46

Skewed Food Policies

By leveraging a large database spanning a 35-year period, farmer profitability, cost of food production, and associated issues facing nutri-cereal farming are analysed. page 54

Forest (Conservation) Amendment Act, 2023

The FCAA is geared more towards meeting economic, defence, and infrastructural imperatives rather than the stated purpose of conservation and enrichment of forests. page 24

Affiliated College System

The impending dismantling of the ACS appears ill-conceived, for no comprehensive surveys were undertaken to assess its long-term impact. page 28
