Brief Summary of the National Seminar on Emerging Trends in the Business Environment

The eminent speaker talked about the Emerging trend in the Business environment since Independence. In India Year 2022 is celebrated as the Year of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav as we have completed 75 years of Independence. ICSSR has given our Institute a chance to conduct a National Seminar under the theme of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav which has many sub-themes. We have chosen the sub-theme as "Economy 75". The government of India is taking the initiative to boost the Indian economy after COVID 19 in the form of various programs launched from time to time. So that different sectors of our economy recover from this pandemic's effects. Our Eminent speakers not only talked about what we have achieved in the last 75 years but prospects of India's growth and development. Prof. (Dr) Sanjay K Bhardwaj, Chief Guest of the national seminar inaugurated the session with Dr. Durgesh Tripathi with Lamp lightening. The session was conducted in Hybrid Mode. He discussed why there is a need to celebrate 75 years of Independence. How the business environment has changed and technology up-gradation and digitalization brought the drastic change in the business world. will address the participants on the above-mentioned theme and sub-themes like government initiatives for various supporting MSME, financial assistance to start-up India in the form of Mudra Yojna, helping weaker section in the form of stand-up India program. Sanjay Bhardwaj talked about the title Projected India 2050. He also discussed the "Make in India" project to empower India. Dr. Nitin Upadhyay has discussed the Mudra Yojna Scheme to empower the women of India as India's growth is not only the responsibility of the men of India but both should go hand in hand for the development of India so Government has taken the initiative to empower women. Dr. Durgesh Tripathi, Professor, GGSIPU being an academician enlightened the participants on the applicability and implementation of education in the real world. The vocational and short-term courses help in skill development and support the citizens of India to be an entrepreneur. The outcome for the
