Workshop on Online Assessment Tools

Department of Education conducted workshop on Online Assessment Tools with B.Ed. students in BED 106 (Assessment of learning) paper on 06.03.2024. B.Ed. students constructed a question paper with various types of items in paper and they created same on Google forms and Class Marker. Online assessment tools have become an integral part of modern education and training, offering flexibility, efficiency, and convenience for both instructors and learners. In this workshop, we aim to compare two popular online assessment platforms: Google Forms and Class Marker. By exploring their features, usability, and suitability for various educational contexts, participants will gain insights into selecting the most appropriate tool for their needs. Google Forms is a widely-used tool for creating surveys, quizzes, and assessments. Its integration with Google Drive allows for easy sharing, collaboration, and data management. During the workshop, participants discovered User-Friendly Interface, Customization Options, and Integration with Google Workspace. Class Marker is another popular online assessment platform known for its robust features tailored specifically for educators. During the workshop, participants explored Advanced Question Types, Security and Proctoring Features, Grading and Reporting. Ms. Ghazala Khatoon coordinated the activity.

DEBATE ON WOMEN'S ROLE : EQUAL VALUE VS EQUAL AUTHORITY

The department of Education, LLDIMS organised a debate competition on the occasion of international women's day on 08.03.2024. The topic of the debate was women's role : equal value vs equal authority. Students of Semester II and IV participated in the debate. The teacher coordinator was Dr. Manju Sharma, faculty of department of education.

The debate on women's roles revolved around the principles of equal value and equal authority, meaning that regardless of gender, everyone should have equal worth and decision-making power in society. They argued that this principle promotes fairness, diversity, and the utilization of all talents regardless of gender. Concerns were raised about traditional gender norms, cultural barriers, and systemic inequalities that hinder the realization of this principle in practice. The debate fostered a view where everyone's contributions are valued equally and where individuals have equal opportunities to participate in decision-making processes is essential for progress towards gender equality. Students participated enthusiastically. It also helped them in improving their communication skills. It was a very highly enriching experience for them.

During the workshop, students are introduced to various art forms such as Warli painting, Madhubani painting, Paper collage , Block printing .

An art and craft workshop provides students with an opportunity to develop their artistic skills and explore their creativity. Students' engagement level in the workshop is an important factor in determining the effectiveness of the workshop. The workshop should be designed to encourage creativity and exploration, allowing students to express themselves freely. The final products created by the students are a reflection of their creativity and the skills they have developed through the workshop.

Gender Sensitization Session at GGSSS Fatehpur Beri

Date-29 April 2024

Facilitators: Deepika, Anugrhita, Priya, Anushka, Bhawna, Megha

The Gender Sensitization Session held at GGSSS Fatehpur Beri was conducted with the aim of fostering awareness and understanding regarding gender issues among students and staff. Led by a team of facilitators under the supervision of Dr. Manju Sharma, the session addressed various aspects of gender sensitivity and equality.

Content Covered:

1. Understanding Gender: The facilitators provided an overview of gender as a social construct, emphasizing that it goes beyond biological differences and encompasses roles, behaviours, and expectations imposed by society.
2. Gender Stereotypes: Participants engaged in discussions to identify and challenge common stereotypes associated with masculinity and femininity. They explored how these stereotypes can limit opportunities and perpetuate inequality.
3. Gender-Based Violence: Deepika, Anugrhita, Priya, Anushka, Bhawna, and Megha sensitized the audience about the prevalence and impact of gender-based violence, including domestic abuse, sexual harassment, and discrimination. They highlighted the importance of speaking up against such atrocities and supporting survivors.
4. Empowerment: The session also focused on empowering individuals to break free from gender constraints and pursue their aspirations without fear of judgment or discrimination. Strategies for building confidence and resilience were discussed.
5. Role of Education: The facilitators emphasized the role of education in promoting gender equality and creating inclusive environments. They encouraged students to challenge gender norms within their communities and advocate for positive change.

Interactive Activities:

To enhance learning and engagement, the session incorporated various interactive activities, such as role-plays, group discussions, and case studies. These activities encouraged participants to reflect on their own attitudes and behaviors towards gender issues.

Conclusion:

The Gender Sensitization Session at GGSSS Fatehpur Beri was a resounding success, thanks to the dedication and expertise of the facilitators. Participants left with a deeper understanding of gender dynamics and a commitment to fostering inclusivity and respect within their school and beyond. Dr. Manju Sharma commended the team for their impactful contribution to promoting gender equality and urged everyone to continue the dialogue on this important topic.

DOCUMENTARY SCREENING – THE POET AND THE MAHATMA

Department of Education organized a movie screening for the students of B.Ed on 2nd may, 2024. This screening was done in lieu of paper BED 212 knowlege and curriculum: perspectives in education , for students of B.Ed Semester IV . It was coordinated by MR. SURAJ . This movie- “THE POET AND THE MAHATMA” is based on a Letters and Debates between Gandhi and Tagore 1915-1941. Compiled and Edited with an Introduction by SABYASACHI BHATTCHARYA. This intellectual exchange began in 1914-15 when Mahatma Gandhi along with the students of his Phoenix School in South Africa visited Tagore's Santiniketan. The documentation is designed to dovetail these two kinds of writings in the chronological framework of the four different phases. Its give an overview of the major issues which united or divided the two, issues which they frankly discussed in their private letters, not meant for publication, and also in a more guarded fashion in their published writings. What may be considered an unusual feature of this collection is the interweaving of the public discourse and their private communications.
