

European allies step up plans for future Ukraine stabilisation force

Countries prepared to provide troops for a post-ceasefire force in Ukraine agreed to set up a headquarters in Paris for a rapid deployment after hostilities end in Russia's war on its neighbor. A US delegation was present for the first time at a meeting of the group Thursday. Retired Lt Gen Keith Kellogg, US President Donald Trump's special envoy for Ukraine and Russia, was on hand for the meeting, which took place on the sidelines of the fourth annual conference on Ukraine's recovery held in Rome. Also present were Republican Sen. Lindsey Graham and Democratic Sen. Richard Blumenthal, who have co-sponsored a new sanctions bill against Russia, calling in part for a 500 per cent tariff on goods imported from countries that continue to buy Russian oil. French President Emmanuel Macron and UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer joined the meeting via video conference from Britain, where Macron is on a state visit.
