Diwali Utsav 2K25

Diwali Utsav Celebration at LLDIMS: A Festival of Lights and Togetherness

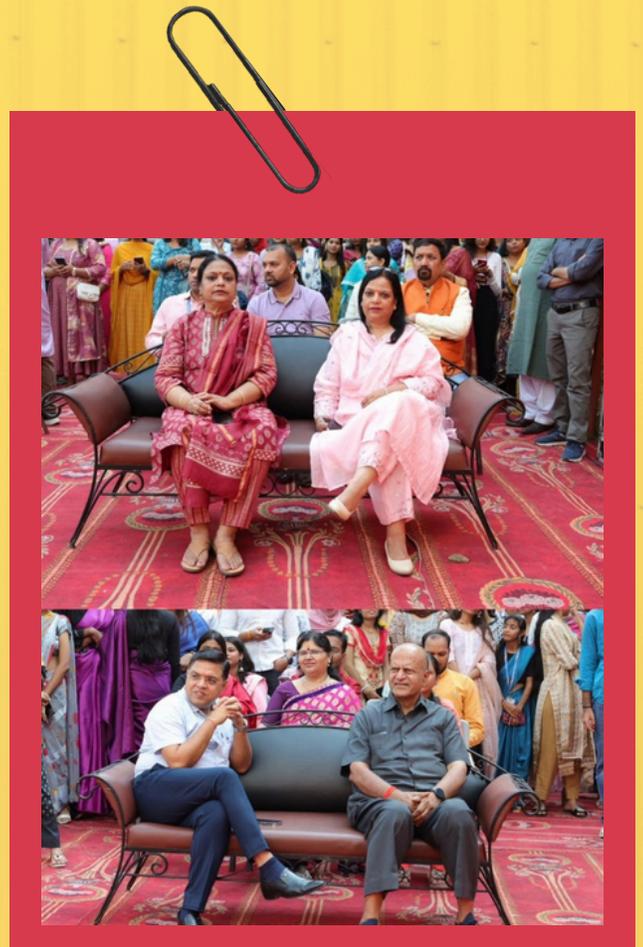

Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS) glowed with vibrant energy and festive cheer as students and faculty came together to celebrate Diwali Utsav with great enthusiasm. The campus was adorned with colorful rangolis, shimmering diyas, and bright smiles that truly brought the spirit of Diwali to life.

The celebration began with a warm welcome, followed by a series of mesmerizing cultural performances that showcased the immense talent of LLDIMS students. From traditional dances and soulful songs to creative skits and energetic group performances, every act radiated the joy and unity that Diwali stands for.

The entire atmosphere reflected positivity, devotion, and togetherness as everyone joined in to celebrate the triumph of light over darkness and good over evil. Faculty members and students alike participated in lighting diyas, spreading the glow of happiness and harmony across the campus.

The Diwali Utsav at LLDIMS was not just a celebration-it was a reminder of the values of love, unity, and hope that the festival represents. The event concluded with laughter, appreciation, and the collective promise to keep spreading light in every corner of life.

Indeed, LLDIMS lit up not just with diyas-but with the brightness of joy, culture, and togetherness

Healthcare Careers for Future Managers

Insightful Session on Healthcare Careers for Future Managers at LLDIMS

The Department of Commerce at Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS), New Delhi, proudly organized an insightful session titled "Healthcare Careers for Future Managers" on 14th October at the institute's Seminar Hall.

The session aimed to enlighten students about the dynamic and rapidly expanding healthcare sector, emphasizing the managerial and administrative opportunities it offers to commerce and management graduates.

The department had the honor of hosting two distinguished speakers – Mr. Vishal Sinha from Apollo MedSkills Ltd. and Dr. Pradyumna Pandey from PromediExcel Learning Pvt. Ltd. Both experts shared their valuable experiences, shedding light on the skills and knowledge required to build a successful career in healthcare management.

Their interactive discussion helped students understand the blend of healthcare and management, along with emerging trends, challenges, and career prospects in this growing field. The session also encouraged students to explore interdisciplinary career paths that combine business acumen with healthcare innovation.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the speakers and faculty for their support and initiative in organizing such an informative program. Overall, it was a highly enriching experience that broadened students' perspectives on career possibilities beyond traditional commerce domains.

Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS) successfully organized a Student Development Program on Risk Management on 8th October 2025 at the college campus. The session was conducted by Prof. Akash Samaiyar, an esteemed alumnus of IIT Delhi and FMS, University of Delhi, who shared his valuable insights on the importance of risk management in the modern business world.

The program aimed to equip students with practical knowledge and analytical skills to identify, evaluate, and manage various types of risks that organizations face in today's dynamic environment. Prof. Samaiyar engaged the students through real-life examples and interactive discussions, helping them understand how effective risk management can lead to better decision-making and organizational growth.

The session proved to be highly informative and enriching, offering students a deeper understanding of strategic risk assessment and control mechanisms. The Department of Commerce at LLDIMS expressed its gratitude to Prof. Akash Samaiyar for his time and effort in guiding the students toward becoming more informed and responsible future managers

Investor Awareness on Depository Service

Investor Awareness Seminar on Depository Services

The Department of Commerce at Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS) organized an informative Investor Awareness Seminar on Depository Services, aimed at enhancing students' understanding of the functioning and importance of depository systems in the capital market.

The session was led by Mr. Mukesh Chauhan, Senior Manager, CDSL, who brings with him nearly 19 years of experience in the capital market, including 17 years with CDSL. He currently oversees the business development activities at the Northern Regional Office and has successfully conducted more than 150 Investor Awareness Programmes across the country.

During the seminar, Mr. Chauhan provided valuable insights into the role of depositories in safeguarding investors' securities, the process of dematerialization, and the benefits of using a demat account. He also discussed investor rights, safety measures, and the technological advancements transforming India's financial markets.

The session proved to be highly interactive and educational, helping students understand the practical aspects of investment and financial security. It encouraged young learners to make informed decisions while participating in the stock market.

Overall, the seminar was a great learning experience that enriched students with essential knowledge about depository services and investor protection in today's evolving financial ecosystem.

NCUI - Trade Fair Visit

Industrial Visit to National Cooperative Union of India (Entrepreneur Fair)

Organized by the Department of Commerce
Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management and Sciences (LLDIMS)
(NAAC Accredited 'A+' Grade Institute & Approved U/S 2(F) of UGC Act 1956)

The Department of Commerce at Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management and Sciences organized an enriching industrial visit to the National Cooperative Union of India (NCUI) on Thursday, 16th October 2025. The visit aimed to provide students with a practical understanding of cooperative movements and entrepreneurship development in India.

The event took place at the NCUI Headquarters, New Delhi, where students got the opportunity to explore the Entrepreneur Fair, showcasing a wide range of innovative products and initiatives from various cooperative societies and small-scale entrepreneurs.

The visit helped students gain insights into how cooperatives contribute to socio-economic growth and empower local communities through sustainable business practices. It also inspired budding entrepreneurs to think innovatively and understand the importance of ethical business and teamwork.

The program was successfully coordinated under the guidance of Ms. Heena Mansoori (Faculty Coordinator, Department of Commerce). The visit not only enhanced students' academic understanding but also encouraged them to pursue creative and community-driven entrepreneurship in the future.

Educational Visit to BSE

Educational Visit to BSE - New Delhi

The Department of Commerce at Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS) organized an insightful educational visit to the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) Office in New Delhi. The visit aimed to enhance students' practical understanding of the stock market, investment mechanisms, and the role of depository services in India's financial system.

During the session, experts from BSE provided valuable insights into the functioning of the stock market, trading procedures, and the importance of financial literacy. Students learned about how shares are bought and sold, the significance of demat accounts, the functioning of SEBI, and various stock market indices.

The interactive session also focused on investor awareness, risk management, and the role of technology in modern financial markets. Students enthusiastically participated, asking relevant questions and engaging in discussions that deepened their understanding of the subject.

The visit proved to be an enriching experience for all commerce students, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world financial practices. The Department of Commerce deserves appreciation for organizing such a valuable initiative that helps students gain exposure to the dynamic world of finance and investment.

Poster making competition

Poster Making Competition – World Investor Week 2025

The Department of Commerce at Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management & Sciences (LLDIMS) organized an engaging Poster Making Competition as part of the celebration of World Investor Week 2025.

The competition aimed to spread awareness about the importance of financial literacy, responsible investing, and understanding the fundamentals of the stock market. Students enthusiastically participated, showcasing their creativity and knowledge through beautifully designed posters that highlighted key messages such as "Invest Smartly, Secure Your Future" and "Be an Informed Investor."

This event provided an excellent platform for students to express their ideas visually while learning about the value of informed decision-making in investments. The posters reflected innovative thoughts, vibrant creativity, and a deep understanding of investor awareness themes.

Overall, the competition was a great success, inspiring students to become financially aware citizens and responsible investors of the future.
