

To ensure a thorough resolution of student problems, the Lingaya's Lalita Devi Institute of Management and Sciences have established a Student Grievance Redressal Cell as per UGC guidelines and latest court order. This cell also serves to make the teaching and support staff attentive, responsible, and polite. It will be mentioned in any complaints made by students and will treat them fairly.

Which an institution committee has been established for and which is also renewed every year. Investigations into allegations of harassment are permitted by the Grievance Redressal Committee. Any student who has a legitimate complaint about one of the committee members should direct it to the director, coordinator, psychologist, career counsellor or psychiatrist.

Methods to complain:-

- Personally
- on the phone
- by mail
- through Grievance box
- by class representatives
- by student's representatives
